You are the People, Progress and Pride of Iowa. Agriculture is critical to Iowa's future. By helping farm families prosper and improving their quality of life, the Iowa Farm Bureau is at the center of agriculture - and you are the heart of it.

People. You can make a difference and ensure that Iowa's bond with agriculture continues to flourish through the Iowa Farm Bureau Ag Leaders Institute. This program will help you build a network with other leaders, and meet current Farm Bureau leaders and staff who support you in your efforts.

Ag Leaders Institute helped me grow as an individual. It has changed me from shying away to seeking opportunities where I can use my voice for Iowa agriculture.

- Emily Carroll, Louisa County

Progress. While each Iowan's individual efforts are important, when we work together, amazing things happen for Iowa. Farm Bureau shows this every day as we speak out for Iowa farmers and their families. We need leaders like you to continue our progress.

"The Ag Leader classes are a great way to develop and improve on the skills needed to be great leaders of tomorrow. An added bonus is meeting and working alongside some great people from across the state. - Chris Ten Napel, Sioux County"

Pride. The Iowa Farm Bureau is proud to support our members and our state through innovative programs like the Ag Leaders Institute. The institute will teach you how to stand up and speak out, address issues and create change. You will be proud when you see your hard work pay off as you strive to keep your community, operation, family, church - and Farm Bureau organization - strong.

"If we don't help the world know what it is we do, we will not only be doing ourselves a disservice but also the future of agriculture. It starts here."

- Kristin Plate, Mahaska County

WHY IT'S IMPORTANT

Looking for Leaders

The Ag Leaders Institute is for Farm Bureau members who have the potential for providing exceptional leadership in their community, county, and state. It's for individuals who are interested in advancing in leadership positions within Farm Bureau and agriculture. It's for people who care about the future of agriculture, and want to make a positive impact.

The institute is open to individuals of all ages. Farm Bureau members who have been nominated by their county are encouraged to apply. Twenty-five to thirty individuals will participate, with one leader selected from each region and thirteen selected at-large.

Applications are due December 8, 2023, including a letter of support from your county Farm Bureau president (can be mailed separately). A selection committee will then review applications. Applicants will be notified of selection decisions by December 31.

Session Topics

Farm Bureau's Ag Leaders Institute prepares leaders for Farm Bureau, agriculture, and rural Iowa into the future by developing leaders' knowledge and skills to make a positive difference for agriculture. As a member of the Farm Bureau Ag Leaders Institute, you will take part in a series of dynamic, interactive sessions that provide:

- The latest information and insights on issues important to agriculture
- Practice in developing the leadership skills needed to deal with issues critical to agriculture and leading change
- A statewide network of leaders in Farm Bureau and agriculture who are committed to the future of rural Iowa

Costs

- The Farm Bureau Ag Leaders Institute is valued at $6,000 per participant.
- The Iowa Farm Bureau will support the majority of the institute, including hotel stays and meals for in-state sessions, and airfare, hotel, meals and fees associated with the Washington, D.C. trip
 - Your county Farm Bureau will make investment of $200

You will invest your time, energy, and make a commitment to attend all sessions
